

Read an ebook in eBook Central (previously ebrary)

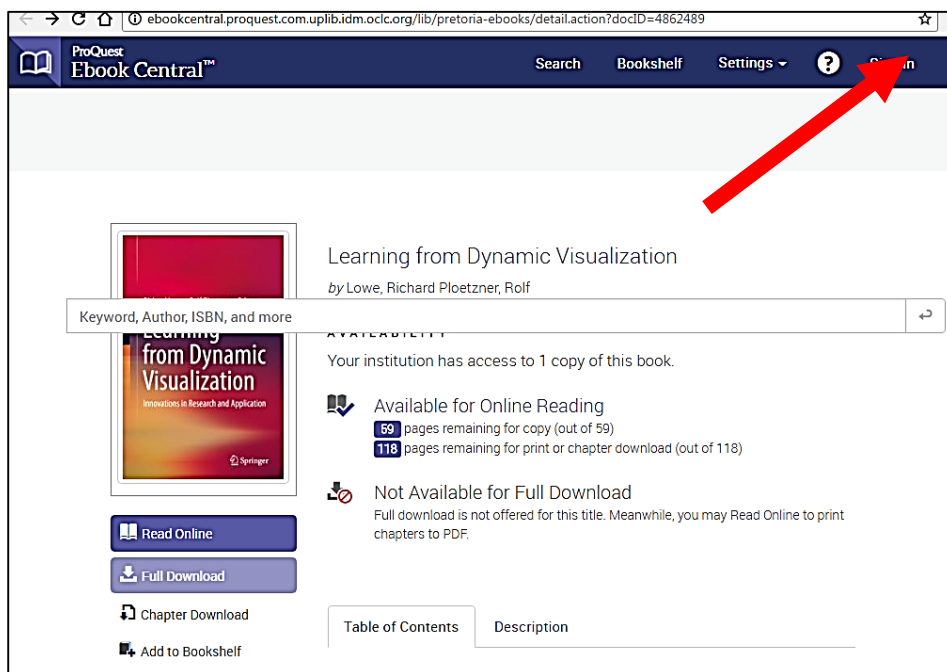

Locate the book in the library system and click on the title to open the book's record.

Now click on View eBook.

The screenshot shows the University of Pretoria library website. The search results list two books. The first book, 'Learning from dynamic visualization innovations in research and application' by Richard Lowe and Rolf Ploetzner, is highlighted. A red arrow points to the 'View eBook' link under the 'Access Full Text' section of the book's record. The record also shows 'Access online', 'Description', 'Editions & Formats', and 'Libraries Worldwide'.

Sign In and create your own account. You will have to scroll down to find the Sign In boxes.

The screenshot shows the eBook Central interface. The book 'Learning from Dynamic Visualization' by Lowe, Richard Ploetzner, Rolf is displayed. A red arrow points to the 'Sign In' button in the top right corner of the page. The interface includes a search bar, a toolbar with 'Read Online', 'Full Download', 'Chapter Download', and 'Add to Bookshelf' buttons, and a section for 'AVAILABILITY' showing 'Available for Online Reading' and 'Not Available for Full Download'.

You should see the Toolbar at the top of the screen. You can read online, highlight and make notes. You can also download chapters in pdf format.
